Some Pike County, Georgia, Notes

Thomas S. Richards and James C. Holmes were both justices of Inferior Court in Pike County, Ga., in March Court, 1825.

Henry Jordan is mentioned in an inventory and appraisement of property of Britton Saran(?) in 1823. Said estate hold a promissory note by Henry Jordan under date of March 30, 1823, for $26, and also one for $24 dated Aug. 27, 1823. H. Jordan's open account for $7 is listed in the inventory, and Henry Jordan purchased a lot of augers for 1.31½¢ from the estate.

From "History of Pike County, Ga." 1822-1932
by Lizzie R. Mitchell

James C. Holmes was one of the earliest settlers, one of the group meeting for Pike's first election in February, 1823, at a site between what is now known as Collier's bridge on Potato Creek and where the stream near Mr. Allen's crosses the old Alabama Road. (p. 8)

James C. Holmes was one of the judges of Inferior Court in 1825 when Lot 227 was purchased from James Whatley to lay out the town of Zebulon. (p. 14)

Members of the early militia drilled on grounds across the branch north of Zebulon, in front of "Uncle Jimmie" Beckham's house. (p.28)

In January, 1840, Wiley E. Mangham was elected clerk of Inferior Court and A. B. Beckham, clerk of Superior Court. (p. 37)

Mr. A. B. Beckham was elected two terms clerk of the Superior Court, accepting the office for the benefit of his nephew, John M. Ready, making him his deputy. As near as we could trace, it seems Mr. Beckham lived in the mountain section of Pike. We find no record of his moving to the county seat. (p. 37)

Dr. J. C. Beckham was a pleasant, courteous gentleman of the old fashioned Southern type. He was elected ordinary in 1854, serving until 1860. Later he practiced medicine in Zebulon. He possibly knew more of medicinal herbs than any man in the county. He lived on the lot where Mrs. Lucy Howell's house is now. He is buried in the Zebulon Methodist Cemetery.

Molena - The first store built in Molena was by H. G. Jordan, now a resident of Barnesville. (p. 93)

Early Settlers of Molena District - From Monroe County came John Jordan, father of Henry and Max Jordan....James Holmes, who had the unique history of being born in a fort in some eastern county and who helped in the founding of Pike County. (p. 93)

Another pioneer living on Elkins Creek near J. H. Milner was William Beckham who came from Upson. It is said the wilderness was so unbroken where he built his home that his wife killed a bear in the backyard one day when she and the children were alone. The Beckham, Henry Strickland and William White families are descendants. His son, Robert Y. Beckham, served as clerk of the Superior Court for several years. (p. 94)

Andrew J. Beckham was one of the trustees of the Bluff Springs Camp Ground incorporated in 1853. (p. 96)

James Carreker was one of the early settlers in the Hollonville Community.

The first church established by George Hill in Pike County was at Josiah Holmes' place near Barnesville. (p. 105)

Members of the Alexander Rifles, Co. G, 27th Georgia Regiment, included J. J. Beckham, J. D. Beckham, Hiram Beckham, Simon Beckham, H. J. Carreker, J. R. Jordan(p. 133-34)

Members of Co. H, 44th Georgia Regiment, included R. Y. Beckham, (p. 135)

Members of Barnesville Blues, Co. D, 3rd Georgia Battalion, included L. C. Holmes, W. C. Holmes, W. P. Holmes, J. F. Holmes, John Milner, Willie B. Milner. (p. 132-33)

Members of the Confederate Guards, Co. A of the 13th Georgia Regiment, included: J. H. Mangham, C. A. Mangham, W. D. Mangham, J. W. Barker, J. H. Beckham, John T. Beckham, J. J. Hartsfield, Thomas Hartsfield, M. K. Jordan, P. M. Jordan, D. R. Jordan(p. 131)

Members of Co. H of the 53rd Georgia Regiment included: J. H. Barker, S. D. Beckham, J. W. Carreker, J. P. Jordan (p. 136)

Members of Co. G or 1st Reserves of State Troops, April, 1864, included: Stephen A. Beckham, Thomas Barker(p. 137)

Members of Co. H of Cummings Battalion of Georgia State Troops included: William Beckham, Z. T. Beckham, Robert Pilkinton.

To wit:

Item 1st. It is my wish and desire & I do hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary H. Holms a certain negro woman Lucy and her boy child, Sanford, together with her bodily increase.

Item 2nd. It is my wish and desire & I do hereby provide that every one of my beloved children shall fare alike, in the distribution of my Earthly Estate, & that my Daughter Harriet N. Hartsfield, has, heretofore, as I conceive, received Twenty Seven hundred Dollars more than either of her other Sisters.

Item 3rd. It is my wish & desire and I do hereby provide that each of my beloved daughters Mary J. Jordan, Malinda N. Mangham do each receive the Sum of Twenty Seven hundred Dollars to make them equal,as I conceive, with their younger Sister Harriet N. Hartsfield and that Said Sums to be received out of any of my negro property, not set apart in Item first to be ascertained by apportionment or valuation.

Item 4th. It is my wish and desire and I hereby provide that if there Should be more of my negro property than it takes to make my Daughters Mary J. Jordan and Malinda N. Mangham equal with their younger Sister then the remainder of Said property to be equally dived (sic) between my three daughters, and if it is found that said property is not enough to make my Daughters Mary J. Jordan & Malinda N. Mangham equal with their younger Sister, then they are to be made equal out of my other effects that belong to my estate not heretofore set apart in item first.

Item 5th. It is my wish and desire and I do hereby provide that all my lands stock and all my other property be sold by my Executors either prublicly or privately as they in their judgement deem best and that the proceeds, after the provisions of Item 4th, if any should be needed, to be equally divided between my beloved wife and three daughters.

Item 6th. It is my wish and desire and I do hereby appoint Wiley E. Mangham, John T. Jordan and Thomas J. Hartsfield as my Executors.

Will of John T. Jordan

The State of Georgia, County of Pike --

I, John T. Jordan of said County and State being at this time of feeble health but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and desirous of availing myself of the privilege of disposing of my property after my death do now make this my last will and Testament in manner following, that is to say:

Item 1st. As my soul is not at my own disposal I commend it to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ who is the resurrection and my hope thereof in whom I have for many years trusted - I will and request that my body after my death be decently interred in the usual Christian manner -

Item 2nd. I will, direct and bequeath that my Executor hereinafter appointed as soon as practicable after my death pay all my just debts;

Item 3rd. I will bequeath and devise unto my beloved wife Mary Jordan during her natural life or widowhood all my estate, both real and personal of every kind and after the death of my beloved wife I wish and will the same to be equally divided among all my Children, but in the event that my beloved wife should marry again it is my will wish and desire that a division of my estate then take place among my beloved wife and all my children Equally share and share alike.

Item 4th. I will wish and desire and hereby authorise my beloved wife if she should deem it best, to make advances to any of my children as they may arrive at lawful age or marry not exceeding the equal share that would be coming to each of them at the general division the same to be taken into the account at that time and also any advances that I have heretofor made or may hereafter make to any of my beloved children;

Item 5th. I appoint my Beloved son J. P. Jordan Executor of this my last will and Testament and request his acceptance thereof. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the 9th day of August A. D. Eighteen hundred and fifty nine (1859). Signed: John T. Jordan (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, declared and published by the Testator John T. Jordan as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribing witnesses who subscribed our names hereto at his instance and request in the presence of the said Testator and of each other this the 9th day of August A. D. Eighteen hundred and fifty nine (1859). Signed: George M. McDowell, P. H. McDowell, Jas. C. (his x mark) Holms

In as much as I have heretofore given each of my beloved sons J. P. and P. M. Jordan Each one hundred Dollars I do therefore by this Codicile provide that each of my younger children receive a like sum as they become of age or mary to make them equal with the older brothers -

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the day and date before written. Signed: John T. Jordan.

xii. SARAH JANE JORDAN, b. 18 January 1848.
xiii. HENRY GARLAND JORDAN, b. 27 September 1850.

3. ELIZABETH[2] JORDAN (BENJAMIN[1]) was born Abt. 1810 in GA, and died Abt. 1885 in Chambers Co., AL. She married THOMAS S. RICHARDS 1826 in Pike Co., GA.

Notes for THOMAS S. RICHARDS:

This info given by larry Rasberry back in 1975. Have lost contact with him, as did Mildred Watkins, the genealogist who did a lot of research for a cousin of Dan Boswell Jordan, Noah Thomas. She was trying to clear up the Jordan puzzle of who was the father of Benjamin and to help us find proof of the generation link between John Thomas Jordan, the son, to Benjamin.

Children of ELIZABETH JORDAN and THOMAS RICHARDS are:

i. WILLIAM JACKSON[3] RICHARDS, b. 11 March 1827, Pike Co., GA; d. 20 April 1868, Rusk Co., TX; m. MARTHA R. EMBRY, 18 January 1849, Chambers Co., AL.
ii. SUSAN ANN RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1829, Troup Co., GA; d. Aft. 1890; m. GEORGE B. GUNN, 19 January 1854, Chambers Co., AL.
iii. THOMAS S. RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1831, Troup Co., GA; d. Aft. 1890; m. MARY JANE LAWSON, 19 June 1861, Chambers Co., AL.
iv. GEORGE W. RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1833, Troup Co., GA; d. Aft. 1890.
v. JAMES F. RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1836; d. Aft. 1890.
vi. RUFUS S. RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1838.
vii. EDNA PRUDENCE RICHARDS, b. Abt. 1840, AL; d. Aft. 1890.

Notes for EDNA PRUDENCE RICHARDS:

From the records of larry Rasberry, he states that Edna and james lived with their mother until her death, neither married.

4. ADELINE[2] JORDAN (BENJAMIN[1]) was born 1818, and died 19 July 1879. She married JACOB CARRIKER 25

7. iii. JOHN THOMAS JORDAN, b. 30 July 1861, Pike Co., GA; d. 15 February 1923, Molena, Pike, GA.

6. MAXIMILLAN KENDALL[3] JORDAN (JOHN T.[2], BENJAMIN[1]) was born 02 July 1845. He married SARA ANN EUGENIA WILLIS.

Notes for MAXIMILLAN KENDALL JORDAN:
Info on the family of 'Maxi' given in 1976 by Holmes Dupree Jordan, to VJ. His grandfather Maxi, lived with Dupree's family. The old man was over 6' tall-had two minnie balls in left arm. He fought with Gen. Robert E. Lee. The children used to climb on his lap to feel the minnie balls in his arm.

Children of MAXIMILLAN JORDAN and SARA WILLIS are:

i. JOHN POPE[4] JORDAN, b. 18 January 1867, Pike Co., GA.
ii. JOHN NEWTON JORDAN, b. 10 May 1869, Pike Co., GA.

Descendants of George Carriker

Generation No. 1

1. GEORGE[1] CARRIKER was born 25 Oct 1752 in Philedelphia Co., PA, and died Oct 1836 in Heard Co., GA. He married (1) SUSANNAH SCHUBERT in NC. He married (2) FRANCES LEE 08 Apr 1808 in Anson Co., NC.

Notes for GEORGE CARRIKER:
The Carriker info, in large, is the research of Mildred Watkins a Certified Genealogist whose was hired by Noah Thomas of LA and TX to try to solve the Jordan problem. She tried this by doing a lot of extensive research on the children and their spouses. As a result, we have a lot of extraneous info that your 'gut' tells you that you are in the neighborhood but we have yet, at this writing Jan. 1998, not solved the problem of proving that Benjamin Jordan is the father of these Jordans!!! Mildred has long ago died but fortunately I was able to make a visit to Noah Thomas' place in Shelbyville, TX. and copy the charts and etc that she had put into book form for her client, Noah Thomas. I assume that he is long dead for we have not heard from him in years. He was a cousin of Dan Boswell Jordan's, my husband, and had plenty of money to put into this project.

Children of GEORGE CARRIKER and SUSANNAH SCHUBERT are:

2. i. JOHN[2] CARRIKER, b. 1785, NC; d. Abt. 1864, Pike Co., GA.

Dear Aunt Vivian,

It was so good to hear from you. I'll do whatever I can to help with the family history information. The forms you sent me are enclosed, with current information.

Nick's address is: 311 Marl Ravine Road
Yorktown, VA 23692-4207

His wonderful wife is Linda Trout, and she uses Trout-Jordan as her last name. We do love her dearly!

Anne Carlton Blanchard, Mama's niece—Annie Lou Bartlett Carlton's elder daughter—has done extensive research into the Bartlett, Hawkes, and Stewart (Grandmother's mother's side) sides of the family. I have the information she has found, and will be glad to send copies to you. I'm sure Anne would love to hear from you!

Anne C. Blanchard
400 Wesley Drive, Apt. 074
Asheville, NC 28803
828-285-2375

This was a busy Christmas season for us. Joseph married on December 30, so there was no slow-down after Christmas! Life remains exciting! I included his marriage and bride's name on the form.

What exciting news about the great-grandchild! I hope all goes well with Georgia's pregnancy. You all must be beside yourselves with joy!

I'll return the forms you sent, and will send copies of the Bartlett, Hawkes, Stewart information as soon as I can get to the copier at Dan's office.

Much love to you + Uncle Dan—

Sue

Dear Friends and Family, Christmas 2004

We are enjoying a fall filled with brilliant blue skies, gorgeous sunrises and sunsets and our usual busy schedules. We walk two miles in the very early morning and Norfolk's sunrises and sunsets are the most beautiful in the fall and winter. We have enjoyed spending time with our kids and the babies as often as possible and managed to fit in several trips here and there.

Wendell is in his sixth year of teaching band and has seen wonderful growth in his program this year. He began in 1998 with fewer than 12 kids in all the bands combined. This year he has over 80 students enrolled in 6th to 12th grade bands and the Jazz Band. In a school with about 400 students, that is quite a statement. The bands made a CD this year which is selling briskly. He has a Jazz Club show each February and it has been a sellout each year. He continues to play and perform throughout the area, describing himself as a "musical mercenary".

My school year is going much better this year. The children are working together and I am having a good time. With the idea of going out on top, I have decided to retire in June. Somehow it is easier to put up with all the politics, the hassles and the horrendous work load knowing that there is an end in sight. I have taught for 32 years and it is time to do something else. I may do some tutoring, work as a literacy specialist part time, or get a job in a fabric store. Whatever I do, I won't work 80 hours a week any more.

This fall I joined Team In Training, the fund raising arm of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. I walk 20-25 miles each week and work out at a gym 3 times a week so I will be ready to walk a Half Marathon at Disney World in January. It's been a very enjoyable process and I really enjoy the training sessions. The fund raising has gone very well also. I have surpassed my goal of $3000. It's a way of celebrating my upcoming 60th birthday. 2004 60 #, 1944

Our family has provided us with many wonderful experiences and milestones this year. Christine achieved her lifelong dream when she graduated from medical school in May. She and Chris moved to Charlottesville, Virginia in June where she began her residency in Internal Medicine. They will be there for at least the next two and a half years. We try to get together with them once a month or so. Mary is 17 months old now, walking and talking. She has a head full of caramel colored curls and is a very outgoing little girl. Christopher is a stay at home dad this year, and they are having a great time going to the library story hours, taking care of the house, the cooking and all the rest. Mary is thriving and Chris is enjoying her as she becomes a real little person.

Jordan

Elyse is also staying home with Samantha, leading a Moms group at her church, and volunteering in her neighborhood association. We usually see them every week and we know how lucky we are to have them only a half hour away. Samantha is 22 months old and talking constantly. She is small and blonde, with brown eyes and wispy hair. Being with her as she watched Elmo "up close and personal" at the Sesame Street show last month was a magical experience.

Cory Jordan asked Emma to marry him in August - - - and she said yes! Wedding plans are being made for the spring of 2006 in Charlottesville. We like Emma very much and they have been together for about 5 years, so this must be the real thing. Both of them work at the same restaurant in Charlottesville. It's nice for Chris and Cory to be near each other.

Wendell and I had a couple of great trips this year. We were in California in June for a few days, then in Pennsylvania in July for his nephew's wedding. In August we joined 6 of his siblings and spouses for a memorable 7 days in Hungary visiting family there and touring the country. We also had a few days in a glorious place in the Austrian Alps, two days with friends in Heidelberg, Germany and a day "back home" in Brussels. The weather was perfect, the scenery terrific and it was a wonderful two weeks.

We hope this finds you anticipating the holiday, enjoying your families, and doing work that fulfills you. Our best wishes for a new year full of peace, love and joy.

Love,
Wendell + Linda

Records from our visit to Monticello, GA
+ Grover Gordon

Four Jordan brothers, Reuben, Fleming, Charles Scott, and Mortimer came to Jasper County from the Goose Pond District of Oglethorpe County, Georgia in 1820. Mortimer soon moved on to Alabama.

Members of this family now living in Jasper County are all descendants of Fleming and his wife Ann Meriwether who was also from the Goose Pond District.

They had four children: Reuben who married Mary Frances Bonner, Thomas Meriwether who married Frances Burney, Rebecca who married Henry Slappy Glover, and Sarah who married Benjamin F. Ward.

Ann Meriwether died July 22, 1853 and Fleming Jordan on March 19, 1868. They are both buried in unmarked graves in the old Jordan-Meriwether Cemetery on the Bennie Batchelor farm in Piedmont Community. Also buried there are Ann's father, Thomas Meriwether, a Revolutionary War soldier and her mother, Rebecca Mathews Meriwether, daughter of Georgia's Governor George Mathews.

Fleming's two brothers, Reuben and Charles Scott are buried in the Monticello Methodist Church Cemetery.

Fleming's son Reuben Jordan married Mary Frances Bonner in 1839. She was the daughter of Pleasant Bonner and Elizabeth Mathis. They obtained the home of Welcome Park and made it their home. This house still stands and is the home of their great great grandson Wiley Phillips Jordan, Jr. and his wife Miriam McElheney.

Reuben, along with Aris Newton, were Jasper County's representatives to the State Meeting held in Milledgeville in January 1861. Representatives from each County in the State decided at this meeting that Georgia should secede from the Union and become a part of the Confederate States of America.

Mary Frances and Reuben had four children. They were Henry Bonner, Rebecca, Fleming and Erasmus Hunter.

Henry Bonner married Salina Fish, daughter of Calvin Fish and Serena Kelly. Their children were: Rebecca who married Charles Lee Henderson; Hunter who married Hattie White first, Zadie Ezell second; William Fleming who married Lena Barnes; Charles Henry who married Lizzie Kate White first, Carlie Barnes second; and Irene who married James Johnson.

Rebecca, known to relatives as Aunt Beck, never married. She was a school teacher who taught nieces, nephews, and neighborhood children at a school she operated in the Reuben Jordan home for many years. She died in 1932 at the age of ninety.

Second son Fleming went off to the War Between the States. At age nineteen he was with General Jubal Early's cavalry that made a raid on Washington, D.C. in July of 1864. General Early's forces advanced from Silver Springs, Maryland to within sight of the White House before being forced to retire from the area by Union forces. Fleming was wounded and captured at Blairs' Farm. He died of his wounds at Lincoln Hospital in Washington and was buried in Arlington National Cemetery along with about one-hundred and fifty Confederate soldiers who died in or near Washington.

Ironically, less than four months later on a dreary Sunday morning, November 20, 1864, soldiers of General Sherman's cavalry had breakfast prepared for them at the Reuben Jordan home near Monticello, Georgia.

Erasmus Hunter, who as a soldier of sixteen years of age participated in the Battle of Atlanta, returned home after the War to marry Rebecca Glover, daughter of Eli Seymour Glover and Rebecca Meriwether.

Their children were: Mary Davis who married Ewan Powell; Bonner who married Elizabeth Davidson; Sarah Capal who never married; Hampton Marks who married Lucy Ann Ward; Reuben who married Roberta Malone; Annie who married Thomas Edwin Perry; George Dixon who married Inez Marshall; David who died as a child of four; and Erasmus Glover who married Myrene Phillips.

Dear Cousin Glover,

The stenographer brought me yesterday the papers I am sending you.I am most interested to have your thoughts on them.I found them most interesting,and I think we are xx very fortunate to have such a detailed account of both our Jordan and Harvie ancestors.

The Fleming Jordan who wrote the letter dated"April 10,1894" is your great grand-father isn't he? And Charles Scott Jordan,who wrote The Harvie account,is Mortimer(my G.G.Grandfather brother?And the Uncle of Fleming.And Fleming was the son of Reuben(brother of Mortimer)?If I have not got this correct please" set me straight"

I am also sending these accounts to B.Harvie Branscomb,Chancellor of Vanderbilt Universirty,who wrote asking me for any family data I had. He is a cousin on the Jordan side, a descendent of Mortimer ,as I am.

Please give my love to Myrene and Cousin Sarah,and I do hope that all of you are well. And please remember me to your nice sons and their families.I remember with pleasure your most attractive grand-children.

Sincerely yours,

Anita

From Monticello, Jasper Co. Jordan / Harvie

Monticello, Ga. Oct. 2, 1852.

Genealogy of the Harvie family by Chas. S. Jordan, Sr. (Jordan)

Your great Grand Father & great Grand Mother Harvie imigrated to the State of Virginia from Scotland at an early age & consequently they were married after their arrival in this country. Indeed it does not appear that they had any acquaintance with each other until they met on this side of the Atlantic. I do not recollect the Christian name of either of them, but your great grand Mothers maiden name was Gains & the late Genl. Gains of the U.S. Army was a decendent of the same family. My Mother knew & I have heard her tell the particular clans to which they Harvie's belonged. But not regarding the information of any value at the time I did not charge my memory with the recollection of it. Your Uncle Fleming has now in his possession a large chest which your great grand Father Harvie brought with him to this country. It is made of the peculiar kinds of black oak that grows in the mountains of Scotland. He came to this country bound by indentures to a Merchant in Richmond to serve him for a term of years as a clerk, but the merchant becoming dissatisfied with the country soon sold out his stock of goods to another merchant & returned to Scotland. He attempted by assignment of his indenture to convey also your great grand Fathers services to the purchaser, but the laws of this country would not permit such a thing to be done & by proper legal steps he readily obtained his freedom from his new master. What particular business he followed immediately after this affair I do not know. But some time afterwards he studied law & attained considerable reputation in the profession he had chosen for himself by which he amassed a fortune, which implies that he must have been a man of a good deal more than common sense & by energy of character. He has been described to me as being a large & very fat man with remarkably long flax colored eyebrows, which turned up like the horns of cow. So I suppose he could hardly be considered a handsome man, "though he was a young man with fair hair." He had four sons, viz; John, Richard, Daniel & William and five daughters, Mary, Martha, Margaret, Elizabeth & Jennette. John Harvie had the advantage of a good education the only one of the family that did. He was a Lawyer of considerable reputation. He professed to some note too as a politician & represented the state of Va. in the Congress of the U.S. The family regarded him as possessing a very high order of mind. In personal appearance he was represented as being fine looking. He married I think a Miss Jones, one of the "upper tens" of Va. He had many children but only two are now living, namely, Gen'l.J.B. Harvie & Mrs. Brockenborough, both of Richmond, Va. John Harvie of Kentucky of whom you have heard Mrs. Trice speak was his son. Several of the elder John Harvies children were destroyed in the Theater that was burnt many years ago in Richmond, Va. His son Edwin had made his way out of the burning house in safety but finding that his sisters had not escaped he rushed back to their relief & was lost himself & I think two of his sisters. Gen'l. J. B. Harvie, his only surviving son served many years as an officer in the U.S. Army. He is said to be a man of high arristocratic feelings & of proud & lofty bearing in his personal deportment, which character he inherited from his Mother. Mrs. Brockenborough is represented to be, Harvie like very familiar & social, but nevertheless very arristocratic. Her first husband was an old man by the name of Mann Randolph who did her the favor to live but a short time after marriage leaving her a large fortune. Her next husband was Dr. Brockenborough a man of considerable note in Va. both in respect to his mental qualifications & his high moral character. He was one of the very few intimate friends of John Randolph. Dr. Brockenborough died this year & I have lately read a beautiful obituary notice of him written by his particular friend, Thomas Ritchie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer. Richard Harvie never married. He was a man of superior mind.

Dr. Rose, himself a distinguished man & brother-in-law of Gen'l. Madison whom I chanced to meet in Ala. in 1823 told me that he was one of the best informed men he ever conversed with and that he possessed a mind that would have qualified him for any situation in life in which he might have been placed. But he was totally unambitious of distinction & he lived the life almost of a recluse devoting his time with the intensity of a student to his books. He was properly appreciated only by the few friends he selected for associated. Mr. Meriwether, your Aunt Anna's Jordans father was one of those who entertained the most exalted opinion of his smartness. I have often heard Mr. M. say, who was himself an extensive reader, that he never found anything pertaining to History or the Sciences which he thought remarkable & which was generally but little understood with which he did not find my uncle perfectly familiar. Danl. Harvie married a Miss Taliaferro, was a man of immense size & of Herculian strength. A story is told of him that he carried with ease the end of a large stick of timber which six men found it impossible to raise from the ground. He was described as the next strongest man to the renowned Peter Francisco. From his letters & from the opinion of the family I would say that he possessed only a common mind & that he was wholly without that fondness for books which generally formed a striking feature in the character of the Harvie family. He was passionately fond of hunting and I have heard your Grand-father say, could keep up with the best walkers even in the Mountains, not withstanding his great weight which equaled nearly 400 lbs. He had only one son who recently died a batchelor, & four daughters, but none of his children were more than common. William Harvie married a Miss Cosby, a maternal aunt of Bishop Andrew. He was the only one of my uncles on the Harvie side that I ever saw. He was a tall and very large man & of a striking and commanding personal appearance. He uniformly wore a suit of drab colored cloth - cvat & pants - & vest, that is to say when he was dressed to see company. He was a man of extensive reading & possessed a large fund of information, but he was not considered the equal in point of mind of his brother John & Richard. He was a great talker & was particular fond in the latter part of his life of the company of old Ladies, with whom he would be as much interested in discoursing upon the best method of conducting the poultry yard, or anything that pertained peculiarly to the house-wife, as he would be in detailing the incidents of the Revolutionary War of which by the way he was very fond and particular in recounting what befell him in that war in a campaign in which he served as a common soldier. He was an inveterate snuff taker and was remarkable fond of toddy of which he could drink more than any one ever saw without seeming to be effected by it. Mrs. Hull whom you have seen is his daughter, and may perhaps be regarded as the smartest of all of his children. He had a daughter of your name Jennett, however that was much the most of my favorite of all of his children. She was one of the most happy, social & free hearted women I ever saw without one feeling of that aspiration for high life which Mrs. Hull exhibits in a very high degree and with all she possessed fine sense. She married a man by the name of Leonard & died in Morgan County in this state many years ago. My uncle had no son and four daughters. The two mentioned are considered to be the smartest. Mary Harvie married David Meriwether, the great Uncle of your Aunt Anna Jordan. He was a most worthy man & she a most estimable woman. I recollect seeing her but once and then I was a child. The impression she made upon me was that she was a woman of great kindness of feelings. She was at the time very old & could only with great difficulty get about. She was the only one of the Harvies that lived to be very old. She had but one child a daughter who married

Benjamin Taliaferro after whom the county of Taliaferro is named. He had been an Officer in the Revolutionary War in which he had destinguished himself. When I knew him, he was an old man and from his fine manners which he had acquired in the army and his snow white hair his appearance was very striking. He filled many stations of distinction in Ga. He was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of the state, was frequently elected to the Legislature & on more occasions then one to the Congress of the U.S. and what is remarkable he was elected to the Office of Circuit Court Judge without being a lawyer. He had many children & although he possessed very superior smartness & his wife was regarded but little if any his inferior in point of mind, not one of them could be classed as being more than common. ¶ Margaret Harvis was the smartest and perhaps she was the least smart of any of the family. She was about the size of Anna Spear. Her first husband, whose name I think was Gains, turned out to be a drunken dissolute man, and wasted the whole of his estate. Her next husband was a pompus little man by the name of Davenport who pretended to affect the complete gentleman in his manners which he accomplished very awkwardly. His mental qualifications were of a low grade but he nevertheless possessed the necessary qualities for thrift and he amassed a considerable fortune. His wife possessed many peculiaries. The report of a gun, near or sudden burst of thunder would occasion her to scream out in affright & sometimes to fall down in convulsions. Her conduct on such occasions was extremely annoying to my Father. He could not understand how the nerves of anyone, however finely strung could be shocked to such an extent even by the report of a whole park of artillery, and was disposed to regard her alarm as sheer affectation which he paid no sort of respect to. She had no children by either marriage. ¶ Martha Harvis married John Moore, a man of decidedly gentlemanly bearing in his deportment and of considerable attainments. He was a very useful man in his neighborhood, from the fact that he possessed the readiness of a Lawyer in drawing up any kind of instrument that might be needed in the transactions of his neighbors. He was the neatest draftsman I ever saw. He wrote a hand as highly ornamental as your Uncle Joshua Hill, but it was a good deal larger than his and was written with boldness & freedom. But he managed his affairs badly & wasted all of his property. For many years before his death he lived in extreme poverty teaching a country school to procure the means necessary to support his family. His wife was a woman of fine sense and was regarded by some as possessing equal smartness with any of her sisters but she certainly did not possess the sprightness of mind that distinguished some of them. I can only recollect her as exhibiting a deep shade of melancholy & sadness in the expression of her features. This may have been occasioned by domestic misfortunes & severe physical suffering. She was so much afflicted with rheumatism as to be compelled to use crutches. She had many children but none of them was regarded as being smart. One of her sons, William, married the sister of Meriwether Lewis, who conducted the first expidition that penetrated across the Rocky Mountains to the mouth of the Oregon River. ¶ Elizabeth Harvie married James Marks, a most ungainly looking little man who talked in a long drawling tone of voice with a deep nasal sound. With all, his excentricity was carried to such an extent that it burdoned closely upon down right crazyness. I can recollect when I was a child how great was my wonderment that my Aunt, whom I was very fond of could have fancied so droll a man for a husband. She was a most amiable woman and decidedly one of the smartness. She was extremely careful in all she said or did to avoid giving offense to others, whereas her husband treated the feelings of others with perfect indifference. Indeed they seemed to be the antipodes of each other in sense & everything else. She had two sons,

John & Nicholas and two daughters, Mary & Martha. John Marks inherited much of his Father's eccentricities & peculiarlities. But he was a man of fine natural sense. He married when he was quite young against his Father's consent, Miss Tompkins, the great aunt of Miss Carry Tompkins. For this act of defiance of his Father's authority his Father disinherited him & he was compelled from poverty to labor daily for the support of his family. Yet under such circumstances & with so little education that he could hardly read so as to be understood he acquired sufficient information to make his conversation interesting to men of science & learning. He gave me more information upon the subject of astronomy than I ever received from any source. His Father so far relexed his feelings to him as to bequeath him a legacy of 2000.00, which he received only to make a donation of it to Franklin College. Nicholas Marks inherited all of his Mother's modesty but strikingly resembled his Father in features, whereas John Marks resembled his Mother in features & his Father in peculiar traits of character. Nicholas Marks possessed a fine logical mind & was an exceedingly well read man. The main purpose however of his life seemed to be to accumulate a large fortune in which he succeeded. Mary Marks married Nicholas Johnson my first wife's father. She was a woman of uncommon smartness. Martha Marks married a Methodist preacher of some note by the name of Ginery, but he turned out to be a hypocrite & scoundred, & she induced mainly through the influence of her Mother to separate from him. This matter occasioned considerable excitement in the church, some taking sides with Ginery, & some against him. Phamphlets were published in the progress of the discussion on both sides. My Aunt was a member of the church & her conduct in the part she had acted in respect to the separation was fiercely assailed by Ginery & his partisans. In this state of things she addressed two long letters to a Preacher of eminence who had taken the side against Ginery and who was engaged in the Pamphlet warfare. This preacher in his reply to Ginery & his abettors published these letters. My Aunt with characteristic modesty deeply regretted their publication. But she had no use to regret it but rather to be proud of them for they were written with great ability. I have read since I have been grown & considering her very limited education I regard them as masterly productions. Mrs. Ginery was killed by lightening while standing at a window while a thunderstorm was raging. Jennette Harvie (your GrandMother) was a very tall woman & very large with her weight almost 250 pounds. She had strong & rather course, but not uncomely features. Her forehead was high & massive with much more prominence immediately over the eyes than is usually seen in female heads, but her head wanted breadth through the temples, the same defect that appears in mine. She had gray or blue eyes a good deal like your Uncle Flemings only they were more vivid in their expression. Her voice was remarkably clear & distinct & she sang well & was one of the best readers I ever heard. She was gifted with a remarkable memory & could relate all of the incidents of a story which she might not have read in twenty years. She possessed a large fund of anecdotes which she had the knack of telling with great point & effect, & she possessed a peculiar gift in the delimiation of character. She had at command the most withering sarcasm when occasion called for its use. She was passionately fond of reading & was eminently gifted with the qualities of mind that enabled her to digest properly what she did read. Her information was not confined to such subjects as were usually interesting to Ladies. She was well informed upon general subjects and in respect to the political incidents of the country. She possessed quite enough information to entitle her to the character of being an intelligent politician. The Harvie fondness for talking was fully maintained in her. I have known her when she happened to be visited by one of her sisters or some particular friend whom she had not seen in a long time to sit up the whole night in conversation. Generally persons that are remarkable fond of talking have but little fondness for books. But it was not the case with the Harvies. They were remarkable for their fondness for both. It may be remarked of the Harvie family that they loved their ease and they were of a cheerful happy temperament. They possessed but little energy of character in respect to physical action, but much mental activity. But that which presents them in a point of view the most pleasing to be contemplated with feelings of family pride is the fact that not a single act of disgraceful impropriety blots the character of any of them. Their conduct in all of the relationships of life was proof against defamation and they commended the respect & secured the esteem of all among whom they lived for their moral worth. Of the female part of the family, I think Mrs. Marks & your Grandmother stand out prominently as the smartest. In comparing these two, I would say that in clearness of descrimination & force & power of intellect when the mind was directed to the consideration of a single point, Mrs. Marks was perhaps not inferior to your Grandmother. But your Grandmother's mind was more varied & her conceptions were more vivid. In short she possessed more of those traits of mind that characterize genious. In conclusion I will say that in all of the elements that constitute minds of the highest caste, in quickness of perception, exactness of discrimination & in wide range of thought they were superior, decidedly superior to any women I have ever met with. With all of the advantaged of education you will possess when you shall have completed your collegiate course if you shall equal your Grandmother you will have attained the highest pitch of my expectations. And she had no more education than to be taught to read and write. And she lived too the most of her life in Georgia when it was a wild country and without any of the advantages of an educated society. She spelt her name without the last e which you use in spelling yours and she wrote it thus Jennett. Her hand writing was a little stiff but otherwise it was quite as good as yours & not unlike it. Nothing has transpired since I last wrote worth mentioning. As Sam sleek says we are all up and stirring.

Affectionately
"Chas. S. Jordan, Sr."

The above History was written by my Uncle in 1852 by Charles S. Jordan, Sr., to his daughter Nettie who at that time was off attending school in Madison, Ga.

Fleming Jordan.

From Jasper Co, Monticello Jordans

From James Gillespy, Sr's., Journal. His wife was Mortie Jordan, daughter of Lieut. Charles Jordan of Birmingham, Alabama. This journal, or diary, is now owned by his (James Gillespy's) daughter, Rose, who is Mrs. Lorenzo Baldwin of Jacksonville, Florida. These two documents were typed verbatim from the diary in 1948 by Anita Eustis Worthington.

"June 28, 1894....Sometime ago Mortimer Jordan McAdory, a first cousin of mine and also a first cousin, by his Mother's side (Jordan) of my wife's, loaned me to read a letter from a Mr. Fleming Jordan, Sr., of Monticello, Georgia, who is first cousin of Mortimer's Mother, concerning my wife's Jordan and Harvie ancestry. In same cover with the letter were two documents or sketches relating the families and I have concluded to copy them all entire in this book, thinking that Rose might after while like to read them. They are as follows:"

Monticello, Georgia,
April 10, 1894.

To Mortimer Jordan McAdory,
Birmingham, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

I enclose herewith copies of sketches of the Jordan and Harvie families written by my Father for the information of his children, by reading them you will get the fullest information on the points you desire I can give. Of course, the sketches are not designed for publication, but you are at liberty to use any fact there recorded in your history of the Jordan family which will not mortify any connection of the families. I heard my Father say my Grandfather served a short time in the Revolutionary War. You will observe my Father says that the Jordans claimed to be descended from Pocanantas or some other Indian princess. Save one who is now dead all the family in this country, united with my Father in thinking if the claim was very truth, the connection was not creditable to us. If I ever heard him say I do not recall how the Flemings were related to the family. His Uncle Fleming, mentioned in the Jordan sketch, had a son Dr. Fleming Jordan of Huntsville, Ala., a man of wealth and fashion, who if in life may be able to give you some information on this point, and it is possible Ben Jordan of Washington Wilks County, Georgia, may be able to add to the history of the family. My Father's half-sister, a child of my Grandfather's first marriage, married a Mr. Crews - some of his sons lived in Alabama and if you can reach them may give you further information.

Harvie Watterson and his son Henry Watterson, Editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, descended, I Understand, from the John Harvie who moved to Kentucky. I heard my Father say, but do not recall through which branch of the family, he was related to the Reeves of Virginia When my Grandmother was baptised, or christened, Thomas Jefferson was the Godfather. I think it was the wife, Dolly Madison, and not the President who was related. I heard him speak of others to whom the family was related, but have forgotten most of them, but recall Wm. Henry Harrison and of course the grandson Benj. Harrison is also. He felt more pride in Harvie branch than the other - loved to talk of his Mother, and when he wished to compliment my sister called her a dish faced Harvie. You will observe Jordan sketch, after publishing who his grandfather married and who Samuel Jordan - who was evidently not lazy married - is confined to a history of "his Uncles and Aunts." Whereas in the Harvie sketch he mentions his cousins. I have heard him and my Uncles Reuben and Fleming say that Georgians, by Gov. Gilmer, was full of in-accuries, not only as to our family but to other families, some of which were cruelly false. It is possible his history of our family, especially in his unjust notice of Uncle Reuben, with whom he unnecessarily quarreled and never forgave, may have been colored by his unfriendly feelings. Wherever my Father and Uncles Reuben and Fleming were known, and they were widely known in the state, their intellectual superiority to Gov. Gilmer was fully accorded. The book which was said to be written to please Mrs. Gilmer and much of it dictated by her produced excitement and bad feeling and provoked so much adverse criticism that the author sought to recall it and did burn all he could get hold of.

Replying to the last paragraph of your letter, I beg to say I have never felt any hesitancy in recognizing my father's relations and their claim to my friendly interest. The fact that they are of his blood is a sure pass-port to my heart and is their patent of nobility. I recall with increasing pleasure - I am getting old enough to live somewhat on memories - the vigorous intellect and bright intelligence of my father and my two uncles, their goodness, the just popular appreciation of them and their devotion to each other. I never saw my Uncle Mortimer, nor any of his children, except Cousin William, whom I met before the War, but would be pleased to meet and familiarly know them. Cousin Fleming visited, some twenty years ago, my father, who was pleased with the attention and with him. I was from home and did not have the pleasure of seeing him.

Hoping the information I furnish you of the family may not be disappointing - I remain very truly

Fleming Jordan, Sr. (of Georgia)

From Jasper Co - Monticello Jordans

(1801- 1870)

Copy of sketch of Jordan family, written by Charles Scott Jordan of Georgia for the information of his children.

The Jordans are what used to be denominated "Buckskins" a term that was applied to such families as might be unable to trace their origin beyond the United States, which was the case with them. The term was used rather in reproach, inasmuch as it was a matter of pride in the better families to maintain their descent from the families of the old country. A failure to do so was held to be evidence of a very absence and therefore low origin. The Jordan family, however, claimed with emphasis, to have descended from Pocohontos, or some other Indian of royal distinction and some of them felt and manifested much pride in this behalf. But it was a feeling in which I never could sympathize. The Indian character presents nothing to me to admire - the preminent traits of which are treachery and cruelty, and their habits are disgustingly filthy and revolting. ℙ Your Great-grand-mother Jordan was a Miss Scott, a relation of Gen. Charles Scott, after whom I was named. She was the only child of a widow by her first marriage. Your Great-grand-father Mathew Jordan married the daughter and Samuel Jordan, his elder brother, married the mother (the widow Scott). By this marriage Samuel Jordan had many children - 16 or 18 - none of whom I ever saw or know anything about. But the descendents from this family must be very numerous. My Grand-father Mathew Jordan had six sons, namely - Reuben (my father), William, John, Benjamin, Fleming, and Mathew, and four daughters, Judith, Elizabeth, Sarah and Mildred. But two each of the sons and daughters married, namely - Reuben and Fleming of the sons and Sarah and Mildred of the daughters.

Reuben Jordan (my father) was rather below the middle heighth, slightly stooped in the shoulders and remarkably handsome. His eyes were jet black and as brilliant as diamonds. When excited they were peculiarly striking and penetrating in their expression. His hair was black and his skin dark. Since my recollection of him, he was much worn down by disease and exhibited the appearance of a small and rather feeble man. But in early life his weight was from 160 to 170 pounds and he was possessed of remarkable strength and activity in so much he never met anyone in strife that could manage him. In his youthful days fighting was a common and almost the only mode of settling difficulties, even among gentlemen. He had many of these encounters and always came off victorious, so that he acquired the eclat which in those times was awarded to those that were considered invincible in the "Ring." His remarkable activity was manifest even as late as my recollection of him, shattered and indeed completely broken down as he then was by age and disease. His foot fall was as light as the trend of a cat, and I have seen him on many occasions with a rifle in his hand mount a tall horse without touching the horse or saddle with his hands - a feat which not one in a hundred of the young men can perform. He was remarkable fond of field sports and was considered the finest horseman and best rifle shot in all the county. He was not of a cogitating turn of mind and possessed but little fondness for books. But he was nevertheless a man of fine sense and possessed in an eminent degree the qualifications of judging correctly of human nature and of determining the probable motives that would govern the actions of men under particular circumstances.

It was from him that your Uncle Fleming inherited the gift that is awarded to him in this behalf. He wrote a beautiful hand possessed great readiness and facility in arithmetical calculations. In a word he was a man designed by nature for action not for thought and cogitation.

William Jordan died at an early age. I have often heard my father speak of him as being the finest formed and handsomest man he ever saw. He was the largest of the family and was unmatched in strength and activity.

John Jordan entered the Army in the Revolutionary War at the commencement and continued in it until the close of hostilities. He entered at the age of seventeen years as a common soldier, but he was soon promoted and at the close of the War held a Captains commission. He was in thirty odd engagements, in one of which he was wounded in the knee, which lamed him for life. He served with great bravery and efficiency and possessed at the end of the War the very high caste which such recommendations these were sure to give. He was engaged to be married soon after his return from the army to a young lady of great fortune and of a family of eminent distinction, even among the first families of Virginia. But a violent storm preventing his reaching the house of his affiance on the day appointed for the soleminization of the marriage, the wedding was postponed and finally without any apparent cause the engagement was broken off by himself. I have read many of his letters to my father, from which I should infer he was a man of high order of intellect and very considerable mental culture.

Benj. Jordan was regarded as possessing very great business capacity and was connected with one of the largest mercantile firms that ever existed in Virginia, towit Irving Gault & Co. He died when a young man from the effects of violent and sudden mental excitement. He was descending the James River in a boat and had under his care all the books and papers belonging to the concern to which he belonged; the boatman through careless management allowed the boat to turn across the current in one of the difficult passes with which the river abounds above Richmond and immediate and certain destruction was thought to be inevitable. The effect on his feelings was such, in consideration of the vast amount of effects he had under his charge, that he was stricken down in a paralitic fit, from the effect of which he died in a few days. Notwithstanding the apparent weakness he evinced on this occasion, he was regarded by his family as being a man of extraordinary strength of character, for cool and deliberate courage. It is proper to say the boat was righted and the difficulty passed in safety. Many of his letters were among my father's papers. The style of composition is in confirmation of his having been a business man - being extremely laconic and to the point. He wrote a bold, dashing, counting room hand.

Fleming Jordan married Miss Moore, the neice of my Mother. I knew him well and spent many weeks at his house in Alabama in 1823. He had not seen me before then since I was a child. On that occasion he formed a strong attachment for me and kept up as long as he lived a regular correspondence with me. But with feelings of shame I have to say that I suffered all of his letters to be lost. I wish I had them to show to you. They were written in a peculiar hand, and with much of the punctiliousness and exactness of a pendant. He was a very small man, with remarkably keen and pierceing black eyes, and of handsome and manly features. In his gait and bearing he was lofty and aristocratic - affecting with much pomposity the manners and the "old Virginia gentleman." He was a passionate admirer of Gen. Jackson, and on the occasion of receiving the intelligence of the battle of New Orleans he danced about the room like one that was crazy and cried for joy, exclaiming "hurrah for Old Hickory." When under the influence of drink his mind seemed to be fixed above "upon deeds of daring and acts of bravery." On such occasions his favorite saying was one beginning -

Why soldier, why
Why fear to die, boy
It is he you or I.

Many years ago he was traveling through the Cherokee nation, in company with two other gentlemen, at a time when the Indians were a good deal irrated with the Govt. of the U.S. and when the notorious half breed Chief Van, who boasted of having spilt more human blood than would float a ship, held complete sway in the country. They missed their way and happened about nightfall to come upon a house, in which Van was holding carnival, surrounded by a hundred or more of his peculiar friends and partizans. Van, who was amusing himself in his drunken revelry by firing pistols every minute or two from the windows of the house, saw them as they rode in the yard and fiercely ordered them to dismount and come in. They felt themselves compelled to obey the summons, and they entered the room to which they were ordered with feelings of serious and well grounded apprehensions for their safety. My Uncle from whom I heard the story admitted he felt very seriously the peril in which he was placed and that he considered, under such circumstances, that it would be nothing amiss to strengthen his feelings (to use his own words) with a little "Dutch courage", and he therefore readily accepted the bottle which the Indians tendered him. By the time he had refreshed himself with the third drink, he was fiercely engaged in a quarrel with Van in relation to the matter of a public road which the Govt. of the U.S. had ordered to be opened through the nation. Van denounced the act as a usurpation, with fierce and bitter threats. On the contrary my Uncle maintained the right of the government to make the road and assured Van with scorn that, in difiance of all his threats, it would be done. And finally, as the quarrel grew more fierce, he gignified his willingness to engage him in a fight. Such rash and provoking conduct to a man known to be so much dreaded and so badly minded as Van was, and that too when they were completely in his power, alarmed the companions of my uncle, who had crouched down upon firse entering the room at the head of the stairs in great trepidation, with the conviction of certain destruction to all of them. But their fears were not realized - on the contrary the conduct of my uncle seemed peculiarly to commend him to the Indians. The old Chiefs hugged him and testified their highest regard for him for his fearless courage. The next morning the travellers took good care to leave before Van awoke from his drunken slumber. My uncle was insensible to fear in facing such dangers, as men are apt to encounter with dread and trepidation. But he possessed the weakness to believe implicity in the existence of ghosts and he lived in great dread of them. When he was sober nothing could induce him to approach a burial ground after night fall. But when he was drunk his apprehensions about ghosts all disappeared. Not that he did not when in that condition believe as implicity in them as ever, but that on such occasions he would as soon sit down cozily and hold familiar chit chat with the devil himself, as not. He died about the year 1830 on the day on which the sun turned green.

Mathew Jordan was less smart than any of the family. At an early period of his life he wasted all his property and for many years lived on the bounty of friends. He possessed good counting room qualifications and could easily have earned a living by his services as a clerk, but for his dissipated habits. He died about the year 1825 at the house of your Uncle Fleming.

Judith Jordan lived to a very old age and was remarkable for her great amiability, tempered however with a high toned aristocratic feeling. She signified her determination at an early period of life, never to marry and withdrew from society, never appearing in company except on particular occasions, and then always with aristocratic and stately reserve which she had assumed for herself. Notwithstanding her hauty and rather repulsive manners she possessed, as I have before intimated, great kindness of feelings and bestowed her affections upon her younger relations with the fondness of a Mother. She was not remarkable for smartness.

Elizabeth Jordan was engaged to be married to a dashing and wealthy young Scotchman by the name of Irving, the leading partner of the firm which I have before mentioned. But after the appointment of the day for the wedding, he broke off the engagement and paid his address to and subsequently married her younger sister, Mildred, who possessed more beauty and gaity but not a tithe of her elder sister's smartness. The circumstance so disgusted her with the opposite sex, that she withdrew from society of the young and never permitted any gentleman afterwards to approach her on the subject of matrimony. She lived to a very old age - perhaps ninety years. She was a woman of extraordinary mental abilities. Her letters exhibit the highest order of intellect, and her handwriting was as rapid and businesslike as a counting room clerk.

Sarah Jordan married a man by the name of Rose, who soon after his marriage had the misfortune to loose his eye sight. She was represented as not being remarkable anyway. One of her daughters married Dr. Powell, who is at present a member of Congress from the Albermarle Dist. of Virginia.

Mildred Jordan was a light, frivilous woman, setting the highest possible estimate upon the forms of a fashionable life, in which the great wealth of her husband, sanctioned as her own feelings were by his, enabled her to indulge to the extent of her aspiration. At the death of her husband, which occured when she was still young, it was discovered that his estate was greatly shattered, by some unfortunate mercantile operations in which he had recently engaged and she was compelled with extreme mortification to abate to a very great extent her style of living. She married a second husband by the name of Rose, and his brother married her daughter. She left several sons, as did her sister Sarah, none of whom ever attained any other notority, except that which was fully awarded to them for their disgusting aristocratic pretensions.

The Jordans, I will remark in general, ass umed to themselves a very high caste of aristocratic feeling, and notwithstanding their "Buckskin" origin claimed to be related to many of the most eminent families in Va., namely, the Cabells, the Roses, the Madisons, (James Madison's family - late Prest. of the U.S.) etc, etc. My father however formed an exception to the feelings of the family generally in this respect. He held in complete destation all that style of manner which is always a concomitant of aristocratic pretensions. He used to take peculiar pleasure in mortifying what he considered the foolish notions of his sister, Mrs. Irving. When he happened to be at her gay and fashionable parties by introducing the subject of the navigation of the James River and by being particular to let it be known that he had spent much of his time upon that river as a boatman.

Notes for CLIFFORD ALLENE BOSWELL:
When I, Vivian Hill Jordan, first started collecting data on the Jordans and Boswells, it was to 'Little Cliffie' that I turned. She knew more about both familes that the rest of her siblings. She was the oldest in her family, (hence the name of Clifford, I guess, they wanted a boy! Her masculine first name was a great deal of trouble to her youngest son, Dan Boswell Jordan. My husband has told the story many times of having papers returned from some Army sergeant, saying 'We need your MOTHER'S first name and him writing back, THIS IS MY MOTHERS FIRST NAME!!!!!!

I found litte to correct in her facts that she gave me, from her memory. Remember, this is GEORGIA, where the stories are told and retold so many times that the info gets passed on in a correct manner.

Children of ENOCH JORDAN and CLIFFORD BOSWELL are:

i. GORDON KENDALL[4] JORDAN, b. 23 Sep 1910.

6. ii. ENOCH POPE JORDAN, JR., b. 12 May 1912, Columbus, Muscogee, GA; d. 10 Jun 1960, San Mateo, CA.

7. iii. DAN BOSWELL JORDAN, b. 04 Apr 1918, Bullockville, Meriwether, GA(Warm Spgs).

iv. POLLY JORDAN, b. 19 Sep 1920, Molena, Pike, GA[6]; m. LONNIE L. TREXLER, JR., 24 May 1945, West Point, Troup, GA; b. 08 Sep 1920, Asheville, NC.

Notes for POLLY JORDAN:
Polly, who is still alive at this writing, Dec 1997, gave all the vital statistics for herself and husband. They never had children. Unfortunately, she lost 2 or three children, the first 3 or 4 months after conception. Lonnie worked for the Coats and Clark Dye people as a chemist for many years and retired from this position. Polly taught in a vocational school in Toccoa for many years. She and Lonnie are well known in that area, very active in their Methodist Church. Lonnie has a large, large garden every year and Polly puts up the vegetables and they give away the rest.

Notes for ENOCH POPE JORDAN, SR.:
The Masonic record of Enoch Pope Jordan, father of Dan Boswell Jordan is as follows from the files of the Grand Lodge of Georgia, sent to us on 3 May 1991.

He joined the Masonic order and was made a Master Mason on 26 Dec 1908. This was in Mount Hermon Lodge # 304 in Columbus, Muscogee Co., GA. He dimitted in 25 aug 1927

He joined Mount Olive Lodge #122 in Molena, Pike co., GA 16 Sep 1927.

His death date is recorded here as 18 Oct 1948.

Enoch Pope Jordan served as Master of Mount Olive Lodge 7 straight years, from 1928 thru 1934. Then again in 1942 thru 1945. (This was a small Lodge in a very small community.).

High blood pressure, stroke

When I (vhj) came into the Jordan family in 1945, Daddy Enoch had already been ill for some time. In fact that was why they couldn't come to our wedding in Houston, TX. She wouldn't leave him. Also, Dan wanted his brother to be his best man, but Enoch, Jr. was expecting his 2nd child any minute, and he wouldn't leave his wife. At that time, I believe they were in ILL.

Notes for CLIFFORD ALLENE BOSWELL:
When I, Vivian Hill Jordan, first started collecting data on the Jordans and Boswells, it was to 'Little Cliffie' that I turned. She knew more about both familes that the rest of her siblings. She was the oldest in her family, (hence the name of Clifford, I guess, they wanted a boy! Her masculine first name was a great deal of trouble to her youngest son, Dan Boswell Jordan. My husband has told the story many times of having papers returned from some Army sergeant, saying 'We need your MOTHER'S first name and him writing back, THIS IS MY MOTHERS FIRST NAME!!!!!!

I found litte to correct in her facts that she gave me, from her memory. Remember, this is GEORGIA, where the stories are told and retold so many times that the info gets passed on hopefully in a correct manner.

Children of ENOCH JORDAN and CLIFFORD BOSWELL are:

i. GORDON KENDALL[3] JORDAN, b. 23 Sep 1910.

5. ii. ENOCH POPE JORDAN, JR., b. 12 May 1912, Columbus, Muscogee, GA; d. 10 Jun 1960, San Mateo, CA.

6. iii. DAN BOSWELL JORDAN, b. 04 Apr 1918, Bullockville, Meriwether, GA(Warm Spgs).

Notes for POLLY JORDAN:
Polly, who is still alive at this writing, Dec 1997, gave all the vital statistics for herself and husband. They never had children. Unfortunately, she lost 2 or three children, the first 3 or 4 months after conception. Lonnie worked for the Coats and Clark Dye people as a chemist for many years and retired from this position. Polly taught in a vocational school in Toccoa for many years. She and Lonnie are well known in that area, very active in their Methodist Church. Lonnie has a large, large garden every year and Polly puts up the vegetables and they give away the rest.

Notes for IVEY LEDBETTER JORDAN:
Daddy was sick over a year starting Nov 1977, given 18 the year months for cancer and believed. They were not telling him. Unfortunately, the bill 3 of them ran them, the first 2 or 4 months after investigation. I never worked for the Oasis and Chef Type people as a dentist for many years and retired from this position. Daddy thought he a retirement home in Tecoma for many years. He and I owned are very happy in that area, very active in Gun Hill Baptist Church. I guess that a large, large garden every year and Daddy grew up the vegetables and they grew them the rest.

She married (2) DANIEL DAVID GAVITO 14 Aug 1976 in 1530 Hawthorne, Houston, Harris, TX. He was born 21 Mar 1951 in Harlingen, Cameron,TX.

Notes for SHERRY HILL JORDAN:
Sherry Hill Jordan Nusz was divorced from Harvey Harold Nusz when their daughter was c6yrs old.
When Georgia was of legal age, she asked her Mother how to legally change her name to Gavito, the only real father she has ever known. This was done in KS when they lived in Wichita. She is now a graduate of Kansas State Univ. and she and her husband Michael Sizemore have bought a home in Lawrence, KS. They are both architects and working in this profession for separate firms.

Child of SHERRY JORDAN and HARVEY NUSZ is:

i. GEORGIA NUSZ[4] GAVITO, b. 23 May 1970, Rosewood Hosp., Ho., Harris, TX; m. MICHAEL SIZEMORE, 06 Jan 1996, Danforth Chapel, Lawrence, KA.

Notes for GEORGIA NUSZ GAVITO:
When Georgia was 21 yrs and living in Wichita, KS and going to school at Kansas State University she asked her Mother, Sherry Jordan Gavito to find out how to have her name changed from Nusz to Gavito. Dan Gavito is the only Father who has loved and cherished her for about 15 yrs, her biological Father, Harold Nusz did not support her or have much to do with her when she was growing up. He has remarried two or three times since and fathered two or three more children.

Endnotes

1. Letter from Grand Lodge of GA, Gave Masonic record and the date of death.
2. Personel knowledge from the participant.
3. Death Certificate, Jordan Document File, From the Stephens Co., GA Bureau of Vital Statistics. 'Little Cliffie', as she was called, knew that she was not well and called her daughter, Polly, in Toccoa, GA. Polly and her husband, Lonnie Trexler, Jr. drove down and took her back to their home. They said that when they came into the house that evidently she had tried to open a can of coffee or dropped the canister, for there were grounds all over the kitchen floor. Probablly a stroke. We were all so glad that she had gone like she did, for like all of us, she dreaded being a burden to her children She is buried in Molena, Pike Co., GA., next to her beloved Enoch. The cemetery is across the street from their old home.
4. Information from the source, Polly Jordan Trexler.
5. Info from Sandra Lee Baker Jordan, wife of Dan Bartlett Jordan, our nephew, Sandy sent dates and places and complete names for their family, she and Dan's. Giving their children's names, dates and spouses and grandchildren's names.

She was born 30 Oct 1888 in Mansfield, Tarrant, TX, and died 05 Dec 1966 in Toccoa, Stephens, GA bu Molena Cem., Molena, GA[5].

Notes for ENOCH POPE JORDAN, SR.:
The Masonic record of Enoch Pope Jordan, father of Dan Boswell Jordan is as follows from the files of the Grand Lodge of Georgia, sent to us on 3 May 1991.

He joined the Masonic order and was made a Master Mason on 26 Dec 1908. This was in Mount Hermon Lodge # 304 in Columbus, Muscogee Co., GA. He dimitted in 25 aug 1927

He joined Mount Olive Lodge #122 in Molena, Pike co., GA 16 Sep 1927.

His death date is recorded here as 18 Oct 1948.

Enoch Pope Jordan served as Master of Mount Olive Lodge 7 straight years, from 1928 thru 1934. Then again in 1942 thru 1945. (This was a small Lodge in a very small community.).

When I (vhj) came into the Jordan family in 1945, Daddy Enoch had already been ill for some time. In fact that was why they couldn't come to our wedding in Houston, TX. She wouldn't leave him. Also, Dan wanted his brother to be his best man, but Enoch, Jr. was expecting his 2nd child any minute, and he wouldn't leave his wife.

Concord, Pike, GA, son of JOHN JORDAN and NANCY BARKER.

Children of NANCY HOOTEN and JOHN JORDAN are:

Also, Dan wanted his brother to be his best man, but Enoch, Jr. was expecting his 2nd child any minute, and he wouldn't leave his wife. At that time, I believe they were in ILL.

Notes for CLIFFORD ALLENE BOSWELL:
When I, Vivian Hill Jordan, first started collecting data on the Jordans and Boswells, it was to 'Little Cliffie' that I turned. She knew more about both familes that the rest of her siblings. She was the oldest in her family, (hence the name of Clifford, I guess, they wanted a boy! Her masculine first name was a great deal of trouble to her youngest son, Dan Boswell Jordan. My husband has told the story many times of having papers returned from some Army sergeant, saying 'We need your MOTHER'S first name and him writing back, THIS IS MY MOTHERS FIRST NAME!!!!!!

I found litte to correct in her facts that she gave me, from her memory. Remember, this is GEORGIA, where the stories are told and retold so many times that the info gets passed on in a correct manner.

NELSON CHURCH.

rganized about 1822. It was named for one of the charter members, Mr. Thos. Nelson, who was 100 years old at the time the church was established. It is said that he split 100 rails the day he celebrated his 100th birthday. There have been several church buildings here. One was destroyed by a cyclone in 1894, and the present building was erected in 1895.

This church was connected with the Zebulon work until 1866. It was then put on the Milner Circuit. In 1917 it was placed on The Rock Circuit. The present very much beloved pastor is Rev. Grover C. Knowles.

Among the early members of the church, who served their generation by the will of God, were Thos. H. Turner and family; Mrs. Amanda Bussey and children; Thos. L. Campbell and family; Thomson Graham and wife; Jas. Yarbrough and family; Mrs. Thos. Allen and children; Mrs. Matthews and family; Thos. Verden and family; Seaborn Hickson and family, and the Simmons family.

There are sixty members on the church roll. The following are the Board of Stewards: Thos. J. Matthews, T. L. Matthews, Curtis W. Allen and J. T. Speer. There are forty on the Sunday School roll. Mrs. W. A. Bishop is Superintendent.

Rev. T. L. Bussey, a useful local preacher, now living in Atlanta, was a member of this church for many years.

HISTORY OF MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The church record was burned when J. W. Pilkenton's store was burned several years ago, he being clerk. Mt. Olive Church was constituted between 1835 and 1840 by Jonathan Milner.

The following pastors and clerks have served the church:

1849-54 Henry Garland of The Rock, Ga.; Clerk, W. T. Crowell.

1855-56 Jacob King, Upson Co.; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1857-58 James F. McCloud, Upson County; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1859 Jacob Buffington; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1860-61 W. W. Head of Milner; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

J. M. Slade and J. D. Carreker came home from Camp Stephen Griffin, united with the church and were baptized the third Sunday in September, 1861, by W. W. Head.

1862-66 G. A. Moore; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1867 James H. Weaver; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1868-71 E. S. Harris; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1872-74 J. A. Jackson, Delray, Ga.; Clerk, P. H. McDowell.

1875-86 E. M. Hooten, Milner, Ga.; Clerk, H. G. Jordan.

1887-90 W. A. Brooks, Madison, Ga.; Clerk, H. G. Jordan.

1891-96 J. W. Beck, Jackson, Ga.; Clerk, J. W. Pilkenton.

1897 J. F. Crawford, Talbot County; Clerk, J. W. Pilkenton.

1898-1904 W. P. Head, Woodbury, Ga.; Clerk, J. W. Pilkenton.

1904-1908 L. Hooten, Zebulon, Ga.; Clerk, J. W. Pilkenton.

1909-1915 W. U. Kendrick, Griffin; Clerk, G. W. Hamlett.

1916 F. B. Ricketts, Atlanta; Clerk, G. W. Hamlett.

1917 J. T. Espy, Mercer University; he resigned in August to go to the Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

1918-1920 L. B. Harvey, Forsyth; Clerk, J. T. Pilkenton.

1920-1921 James C. Eppinger, Griffin; Clerk, J. T. Pilkenton.

1921-1922 C. E. Hitt, Forest Park; Clerk, J. T. Pilkenton.

James Holmes, John Jordan and Alfred Tarver were the first deacons and were, perhaps, in the constitution of the church, however we can't be certain about that as the records were destroyed. P. H. McDowell was a deacon and clerk of the church for about 35 years. J. W. Pilkenton and H. G. Jordan of Barnesville were deacons for a number of years. J. P. Garner was deacon and also William Hardy of Upson County. W. J. Jones, R. G. Elliott, J. T. Pilkenton, T. C. McLendon, S. E. Clark and Luther Jones are the present deacons.

The land east of the creek belonged to Jas. M. Holmes and he gave four (4) acres for the church lot. Robt. Pilkenton gave three (3) acres making seven (7) in all.

Two of the oldest members now living are J. D. Carreker and Mrs. Susan Reeves who have been members 62 years. Total membership is about 246.

Number of ministers ordained from Mt. Olive Church were three. Zachariah Harris in 1848 who moved off to Dale County, Alabama, and spent his life in the ministry. G. W. Garner was ordained about 1880 and is now one of our leading ministers. J. D. Carreker was ordained about 1893.

There have been three churches erected on present lot: first one about 1835, second 1856 which was blown down by the cyclone March 3, 1893 and was rebuilt during the summer, Burl Banks of Zebulon being the contractor.

The number of churches constituted or partly constituted from the old church were five, namely, Beulah, Hendricks, Molena, Neal and Pleasant Valley.

We have had irregular Sunday Schools from about 1870, ben regular for the last twelve years. Superintendent, R. G. Elliott; average attendance, forty; number of teachers, five. W. M. S. was organized about 1909 during the pastorate of Bro. W. U. Kendrick. Mrs. W. J. Jones was president for several years. Mrs. E. J. Reeves is our present president; Mrs. J. T. Pilkenton, Vice-President; Mrs. J. L. Hamlett, Secretary; Miss Ethel Carreker, Treasurer; Miss Perla Pilkenton, chairman Social Committee. Sunbeam leader, Mrs. M. D. Connally.

UPATOI PRIMITIVE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION — Glad to hear from Mrs. Mary Overby, Curator, Georgia Baptist Historical Society, Stetson Memorial Library, Mercer University, Macon, Ga. 31207 that their collection has recently received the minutes of the UPATOI ASSOCIATION. In 1847 the Association included churches in Marion, Sumter, Crawford, Talbot, Harris, Muscogee Counties, Ga., and Russell Co., Ala. The period covered by these minutes is 1837-1969. Many thanks, Mrs. Overby!

but it was too good a bargain to let it slip, so I bought it. It is a beauty + don't look as if it had ever been used. He gave me a guarantee on it.
All kinds of equipment will go sky high now, with the steel strike still on.
I told Tee yesterday that I know I'm going to die soon, because now I have 2 of the things I've always wanted - and both of them right here at once.
We have finally had some rain. Hope the heat wave has been broken. I have never felt the heat so + has really hurt me. I haven't been out much as I can't take the sun — our yard looks awful but has been so dry it would burn, so there's no use doing anything out there.
Hope Sherry will soon be well of her cold. There have been several cases of polio - 1 death + they had had the shots - one feels so helpless in the face of things like this.
I may go up to Atlanta + stay with Buddy while Mary + Dr. go away on a little trip. He was going over to Estes if he don't have to teach - Mary said he might go to Carries, but I hope he won't, because I am so afraid if he gets back there, he might start to drink again - although he says he will never drink again - Poor dear, I feel so sorry for him - He is doing much better since he is taking the P. I can take a shower, shave + dress himself etc - gets about the house + out on the car port - I told Mary to call + Di be up.

Must stop because I am so sleepy - It is so nice + cool after the lovely rain -

Love to each of you -

Mama -

Vivian, the Land Grant was to Mama's folks The Ritch(+) family - and was from Geo. III - (the paper) 2000 acres - They still have it - You know the Gov. took it + extended Ft Benning - Such rich fine land, too - of course, they got good price - The original timber was worth a fortune - The Ritch family were from Germany + spelled their name Reitch, but dropped the E some where along the way -

CHAPTER 24

THE JORDAN FAMILY

At the outset it should be stated that credit for this chapter is due many persons and sources but primarily to Mrs. Octavia Jordan Perry in her book, These Jordans Were Here (1969). The bibliography shows other important sources. There has been so much published on the JORDAN family that it would serve no useful purpose in trying to incorporate greater detail in this chapter. Accordingly, only enough JORDAN data to reflect the intermarriages and connecting lines with other families in this book will be shown here.

This branch of the Jordan family probably originated in France and became associated with the Reform Movement (Huguenots). They went to England and eventually came to the New World.

King James I of England granted a charter for settling two plantations in America; one in the Massachusetts area and the other in the Virginia area. The charter for the southern area was granted in 1606.

In December, 1606, three small ships and 104 colonists left England and arrived in Virginia, May 14, 1607. This colony at Jamestown, VA, became the first permanent English Colony, notwithstanding the fact that it almost collapsed a time or two.

Samuel Jordan (1578-1623), the first of the Jordans to come to America, left Plymouth, England, on June 18, 1609, and sailed for James Towne with the interim governor, Sir Thomas West. They sailed on the Seaventure with "Sixe hundred land men" in a fleet of "eight good ships and one pinnance" under the command of Sir George Somers. Somers' flotilla encountered a severe storm near the Bermudas, which left the Seaventure unseaworthy. The other ships continued on their way to Jamestown. The passengers of the Seaventure, including Governor West, Samuel Jordan, and the Flotilla Commander, Sir George Somers, decided to stay in Bermuda and build two new ships, instead of attempting to repair the Seaventure, in order to carry additional food and supplies the island provided. Samuel Jordan was elected to keep the day-to-day journal because he was well educated.

Samuel's log serves as the basis of much of our information today. The shipwrecked persons built two new ships, the Patience and the Deliverer partly out of the wreckage of the Seaventure. They set sail again for James Towne, May 10, 1610, and arrived on July 25, 1610. Pedigree, Part A:

I. SAMUEL JORDAN (b. ca 1578, Wiltshire, England; d. Mar., 1623, Charles City, VA). W/1, (unknown). His first wife, whom he married in England, probably died before he departed for America. She was dead by 1620 as he was "considered a special catch for any eligible woman at that time." Samuel w/2, Cecily (Cicilly/Sisley), (nee probably Green) Baley/Bailey, a widow with a young dtr, Temperance Baley. Cecily was born in England, and arrived in America, August, 1610, on the Swan. Samuel Jordan may have been her their husband and she was known in the colony as the widow Baley with a three year old dtr.

When Samuel died he left Cicely with one additional dtr and another soon to be delivered. He was then about 46 years of age. Rev. Grivell Pooley, who had conducted Samuel's funeral, proposed to the widow shortly afterwards. She apparently consented, feeling the need for a protector, subject to the engagement being kept secret due to the timeliness of Samuel's death and her pregnancy. However, Rev. Pooley "spread the word" of the engagement, and this so ired the young widow that she refused to go through with the wedding. Soon after this, widow Cecily became engaged to Col. William Farrar, and Rev. Pooley thereupon instituted the first breach of promise suit in America. Cecily won the law suit. However, the governor and the council enacted a law which prohibited women from engaging themselves to more than one man at the same time. Shortly after the lawsuit, Cecily wed Col. Farrar and had two sons. Cecily wed (4th) Peter Montague and (5th) Thomas Parker.

Samuel Jordan was a member of the first House of Burgesses, the first legislative body in the Western World, a representative of James City, convened at James City, July 30, 1619, by Sir Goerge Yardley, Knight, Governor and Captaine General of Virginia.

A land grant of 450 acres was conveyed by Gov. Yardley, Dec. 10, 1620, to Samuel and Cecily Jordan, which lay on the south side of the James River just below the confluence of the Appomattox with the James, and he called his plantation "Jordan's Journey". He built a manor house on it which he spoke of as "Beggars' Bush". Both Samuel and Cicely have been accorded the title of "Ancient Planter", by Virginia. When an Indian uprising occurred in that vicinity on Mar. 22, 1622, Samuel gathered his family and neighbors into his home, fortified it, and survived. But his son, Robert, was killed by the Indians. Children of Samuel Jordan:

First wife - ?

1. Anne Marie Jordan (b. ca 1596, England). Came to America and wed Laurence Hulet.
2. Robert Jordan (b. ca 1598, England). Came to America and was killed by Indians, Mar. 22, 1622. Living with parents at time of death - believe not married.
3. THOMAS JORDAN (1600-1644). See II below.
4. Samuel Jordan (b. England). Came to America Prior to 1623, and returned to England for study at Oxford's All Souls College, where he matriculated 1623-24. He returned to America as he was awarded, May, 1625, 450 acres in the "Territory of Great Weyonoke." Little else is known of him. It is deduced from wills and other records of his descendants that he moved to Surry Co., VA, then to Lunenburg Co., and that his descendants moved west to Tennessee, Kentucky, and Indiana.

Second wife - Cecily Baley

5. Mary Jordan (b. 1621, VA).
6. Margaret Jordan (b. 1623, VA, after the death of her father in Mar., 1623).

II. THOMAS JORDAN (b. 1600, England; d. 1644, probably Isle of Wight Co., VA). Came to America on the Diana in 1623 and took up a land grant in 1624, which the Virginia Company had given his father who had never taken out the patent on it. He was a soldier with Sir George Yardley. He was the first of his family in the Isle of Wight Co., VA, and from which county he was a Burgess 1629-1632. (Several references state that he married Lucy Corker, dtr of William Corker and Lucy White and that he died in 1685. Actually, Lucy was born in 1659 and was married ca 1684 to Thomas Jordan (1655-1685), son of Arthur Jordan and Elizabeth of Surry County. Thus, the two Thomas Jordans have become confused.) Thomas Jordan's (1600-1644) wife is not known and although it would seem certain that he had several children, only two are positively identified:

1. THOMAS JORDAN, II (1634-1699). See III below.
2. Margaret Jordan. Wed James Davis.

III. THOMAS JORDAN (b. July 7, 1634, Chuckatuck, Nansemond Co., VA; d. Dec., 1699, Isle of Wight Co., VA). He wed, 1658-59, Isle of Wight Co., VA, Margaret Brashere (Brashier/Bresseur/Brasseour/Brasseur) (b. Sept. 1642, VA; d. Dec. 7, 1708, VA), probably the dtr of Robert Brashere (b. ca 1620, Avignon, France; d. 1665, Calvert Co., MD) and who was granted land in Nansemond Co., VA, 1638. The Brasheres were French Huguenots. Thomas Jordan and his wife, Margaret, had ten sons. Several genealogical works ascribe two daughters (Elizabeth and Margaret) born to them, but most evidence favors these two as being daughters-in-law.

An interesting observation at this point: The compiler of this book is descended from four of these sons, viz., Robert, Richard, Joseph, and Joshua. Additionally, Robert's first wife, Christian (Taberer) Outland, had previously been married to William Outland, and he is descended from her also. (See Chapter 45, THE OUTLAND FAMILY). This occurred mainly because of the Quaker practice of "Marrying within the faith" and to living in proximity of one another in the days when people didn't often venture out of their own neighborhoods to find a mate.

At the age of sixteen, or about 1658, Margaret Brashere, the wife of Thomas Jordan, united with The Truth (Quakers or Friends) and was no doubt responsible for leading her husband "into the light." The Religious Society of Friends, ("Quakers") was founded about 1647 when England was in a religious upheaval. Various groups - Anglican, Puritan, Roman Catholic - were ripping the country apart. Into this turmoil came George Fox (1624-1691) founder of "The Religious Society of Friends." His followers soon adopted the name of "Quakers" because Fox had told a judge to "quake and tremble at the word of God." These people formed a group that was not concerned with the religious wrangling that surged around them. They renounced all kinds of war and strife. They had no definite creed, no ordained ministry. All they wanted was to have peace and to get on with the job of serving God and his people. William Penn, Protestant saint and founder of Pennsylvania, set up a refuge in America for Quakers and other persecuted people. Many Quakers had left England for America by 1656 and settled up and down the East Coast from Rhode Island to North Carolina.

The Virginia General Assembly passed laws in 1660 which prohibited Quakers from coming into the Province of Virginia. For his new faith, Thomas Jordan of Chuckatuck endured all the persecutions that were visited upon the Quakers, both in Virginia and England. He was imprisoned and he had property confiscated. Eight of the ten sons of Thomas and Margaret continued in The Faith. Only Thomas Jordan, III, (1660-1759) and Samuel Jordan (1679-1719) became Episcopalians. Thomas Jordan (1634-1700) was sheriff of Nansemond Co., VA, in 1969, and a Burgess of that county 1696-1699. Children: (All born Chuckatuck Parish, Nansemond Co., VA).

JOHN KEATON (testator in Perquimans Co., NC, will proven Oct. 21, 1735). Wed, ca 1720's, Elizabeth____. Children: John, Joseph, Lewis, and Elizabeth Wiggins.

PART C

THE MAYO FAMILY

EDWARD MAYO (b. ca 1650 (?); d. ca 1700/02, NC), a prominent Quaker who settled in Perquimans Co., NC, by 1684, is believed to have been in Virginia by 1670. William Perry Johnson, a descendant, says, "His parentage and ancestry have not yet been proven, but he was probably the immigrant ancestor, and may well be a scion of the ancient and respectable Mayow family of Wiltshire, England." Although not confirmed, the names of his first and/or second wives may have been Hepsibah and/or Sarah. His last marriage, ca 1693, was to Em Nixon, relict of John Nixon. Children:

Diary Excerpts of Daniel Boswell Jordan, 1931-1937.
Life in Depression struck Molena, Georgia-population: 100-200.

1931-Beginning of Depression. Daniel Jordan is thirteen years old.

It is now 1931 and the Depression has been going on for a year. We are one of the few families with enough materials to survive. Daddy still has his job with the railroad at the depot; although, he brings home only 80 dollars a month, as opposed to 300 dollars, which is what he used to make. I spend less time at home with mama and daddy since I got my job in the peach-packing industry. I earn a nickel an hour and work long hours. The money I make goes into buying necessities. I still tend the garden and the chickens and the two cows even though I am gone more often. I will most likely work at the packing plant next year.

Daddy was hootin and hollerin about that old Ms. Pritt. The poor woman can't sustain herself so she comes over to the house often asking to borrow flour and sugar and the like. Makes daddy mad as hell. It has been a hard year but we have faired better than many others. For that I am grateful.

1933-Bonus Army marches on Washington, D.C.: Daniel Jordan is now fifteen years old.

Its 1933 now. That group of veterans from the Great War have finished there march on the capitol. I understand the men just wanted their due money for food. On Thanksgiving day a man came to our door asking if he could work for food. This is a common thing these days and mama would never turn a hungry man down. She told him to go wash up out back and seat himself. He did so and entered the house. He is the largest man I have ever seen, a true giant. He eats more food than anyone and faster than anyone at the table. It is fine though, since we have plenty of food for ourselves. Turns out he was one of the veterans from the march and had not eaten in three days.

1935-F.D.R. and New Deal plans enacted: Daniel Jordan is now seventeen years old.

It is now the year 1935. I graduated from high school as valedictorian. There were six others that graduated with me, four girls and two boys. I do not know why I was chosen for this honor, considering I am not smart at all. I spent weeks re-stringing tennis rackets so I could save 15 dollars to buy a suit.

I have a new career, this time in a pepper cannery. A pepper cannery is a place where peppers are treated so as to produce pimentos. I work from seven in the morning to ten at night with a one-half hour break for lunch and a one-half hour break for dinner. My cousin Mann picks me up in his car that he purchased for 25 dollars. The drive to Woodbury, where the cannery is located, takes about 30 minutes, since it is six miles away on a dirt road. I work on the belt line moving the cans to trays and then stacking the trays behind me. It is tedious and uncomfortable. Since the peppers are in a saltwater solution, I must wear rubber gloves and a rubber apron. I earn seven and one-half cents per hour in this profession. My cousin Mann earns ten cents per hour since he is older than I by about three years.

1937-Roosevelt reforms still being practiced: Daniel Jordan is nineteen years old.

It is 1937 and I have completed two years of college. It is the summer and I have found a job on a farm in Madison. The name is Phillips Farm. I work from sun-up until sun-down. I earn one dollar a day doing various chores and labors. It is about four to five miles away from Molena, so I live at home and travel to work every day. Times are better than they were just a few years ago, but not by much. Daddy still makes 80 dollars a month working for the railroad at the depot.

Note:

The character in this writing is real. He was born in Molena, Georgia, in April of 1918. He entered World War Two as a navigator on a B-17 bomber in Europe. He was never shot down but came close. After the war, he moved to Houston, Texas with his wife, Vivian, and opened a jewelry store with a friend that was a member of the French underground. He and his wife raised three daughters, Nancy, Dana, and Sherry. Dan and Vivian Jordan currently live in Houston, Texas at the tender ages of 79 and 73, respectively.

State of Georgia
Pike County } I John J Jordan of said County and State being at this time of feble health but of sound mind and Memory and desirous of availing myself of the privilege of disposing of my property after my death, do now make this my last will and Testament in manner following, that is to say

Item 1st As my Soul is not at my own disposal I commend it to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ who is the resurrection and my hope through in whom I have for many years trusted— I will and request that my body after my death be decently interred in the usual Christian Manner

2nd I will direct and bequeath that my Executor hereinafter appointed as soon as practicable after my death pay all my just debts.

3rd I will bequeath and devise unto my beloved wife Mary Jordan during her natural life or widowhood all my estate both Real and personal of every kind and after the death of my beloved wife I wish and will the same to be equally divided among all my children, but in the event that my beloved wife should marry again It is my will wish and desire that a division of my estate then take place among my beloved wife and all my Children equally share & share alike

Item 4th I will wish and desire and hereby authorise my beloved wife if she should deem it best to make advances to any of my children as they may arrive at lawful age or Marry not exceeding the equal share that would be coming to each of them in the general division the same to be taken into the account at the time and also any advancements that I have heretofore made or may hereafter make to any of my beloved Children

J O R D A N

From "Georgia Pioneers, May, 1965:

ZADHARIAH JORDAN - came to America from Ireland "on the run" -- he was an Irish Revolutionary soldier and escaped to America to avoid bei being killed. His first known whereabouts was in the Florida Everglades just before the American Revolution. He stayed in hiding about four ye years and did not know of the Revolutionary War until it was over. He migrated to Georgia, near Macon County and married a CLARK, first name unknown at this time. He was called "ZACK"

ZACHARIAH and wife had a son, JOHN, called "BIG JOHN", who was an overseer on the Rogers plantation - supposedly located near Oglethorpe in Macon County. He married Mary Jane Rogers, daughter of the plantation owner---names of her parents not known at this time. The Rogers plantation and wealth wiped out during the Civil War. JOHN & MARY JANE migrated to Texas in 1871, settling in Hood County. John died about a year later of pneumonia - MAary Jane passed away in the spring of 1911 in Rule, Texas. John is the only known child of Zachariah Jordan. Mary Jane Rogers had a brother named George; also a brother named Alfonso, who survived the Civil War. It is believed that her father and two of her brothers were Civil War casualties. This information given by THEODORA JORDAN, son of WARREN, and grandson of JOHN JORDAN.

George Rogers was 14 years old when the Yankee soldiers came through the country trying to get young men to go into the Union Army. George escaped and was not heard from for 15 years, showing up in Texas about 1880. The last known whereabouts of him was that he was in St. Augustine, Florida and owned property. Alfonso Rogers also migrate migrated to Texas where he spent his remaining years.

(The above submitted by Mr. W. L. Leaverton, 13031 Wheeler Place, Santa Ana, Calif., 92705 - Mr. Leaverton would appreciate hearing from anyone who had additional information on the above names.)

Page 3 - Feb. 15, 1793. PUBLIC NOTICE : "To all whom it may concern" - There followeth a recitation to the effect that one Nimrod House was taken into custody by (Militia) Capt. Sims and a party of his militia men on an occupation - that a Negro boy and a horse had been taken from the premises of JOSIAH JORDAN, by one James Hart. It was alleged that House knew the whereabouts of the Negro and the horse. House was then left in the custody of a small party of militia while Capt. Sims and the other Militiamen went in search of Hart. In their absence a larger party of men came up forcibly & seized the said House from the Militiamen, accused him of concealing the whereabouts of the negro and the horse, which House denied, but he was nevertheless severely whipped by the band.

It appears that there was at the time a sharp difference of opinion among residents of that section as to the guilt or innocence of House, whereupon the following persons in the area signed a statement expressing the opinion that House was an innocent victim and that he knew absolutely nothing about the alleged disappearance of the negro and the horse -

BALEY COCKE

Temperance Baley (Bailey, Bayley) b. Va. ca 1607 as a child of 6 years was living at "JOURDANS' JOURNEY" in Charles City, 1623, and is listed there at the Muster of William Farrar and MRS. SLALEY (or Staley) JORDAN. The 200 acres in the Territory of the Great Weyanoke credited to her in the 1626 list of patents had been placed in her name by 10 Dec. 1620 when SAMUEL JORDAN patented 382 acres of land. Owner at the age of three, it is evident that her father was dead and as there is no record of a guardian to care for her estate the probability is she was the daughter of SISLEY JORDAN by a first marriage. Her marriage to Richard Cocke is posted from a land patent re-issued to him 10 Oct. 1652, which includes 1200 acres due by patent to Temperance Bayley, 20 Sept. 1620.

From "A HISTORY OF WETUMPKA"(ALABAMA)

by Emily Porter.

P. 20. "Among the first people mentioned in history to have settled here were REUBEN JORDAN and his family. REUBEN JORDAN himself, had come with Andrew Jackson's army.

"Reuben JORDAN is closely associated with the history of Wetumpka.He, after settling at Fort Jackson , decided to go back to Virginia to bring back with him his father, brothers and sisters. His family were descendants of Pocahontas; his mother was BETTY ELMORE, a sister of JOHN ARCHER ELMORE. REUBEN JORDAN had grown up in South Carolina and was a Captain in the War of 1812.

As he was returning to Ft. Jackson, he went to the home of his uncle, Gen. Elmore. Here he was married to a MISS DILLARD. He brought her, his father, brothers, and sisters back to Ft. Jackson with him. He also brought some of his wife's slaves and some of his unnle's as he was to make a crop for his uncle, GENERAL ELMORE and have it ready for him when he came.

MISS. LUCINDA, one of REUBEN JORDAN's daughters by his first wife, married ARCHER CAIN of Wetumpka. They had three sons, ELISHA A. CAIN, JOHN CAIN, and McDIFFE CAIN. ELISHA M. CAIN married MISS MARY BUYCK. McDUFFIE CAIN married MISS. DOROTHY JUDKINS.

After the death of ARCHER CAIN, his wife married DR.F. B. BENSON and one of their daughters married JOHN FITZPATRICK, son of Gov. Benjamin Fitzpatrick. After Mr. Jordan's first wife died he married a daughter of AARON SPIVEY, of Autauga County. They had three children: ALABAMA R., RUEBEN E., and SOPHRONIA ELMIRA.

SOPHRONIA ELMIRA JORDAN married JOHN MITCHELL, a physician distinguished both in Alabama and in Georgia. Their two sons, REUBEN SYDNEY MITCHELL and JOHN ZOLLICOFFER MITCHELL, became one of Alabama's greatest industrialists."

FRANKLIN CO., GA. I.B. K"K"- (Ga. Gen. Mag. Jan. 1966).

P. 3. Feb. 15, 1793: Public Notice -"To All to whom it may Concern"

There follows a recitation to the effect that one Nimrod House was taken into custody by (Militia) Capt. Sims and a party of his militia made an accusation that a negro boy and a horse had been taken from the premises of JOSIAH JORDON by me, James Hart. It was alleged th that House knew the whereabouts of the negro and the horse. House was then left in the custody of a small party of militia while Capt Sims and the other Militiamen went in search of Hart.

In their absence a large party of men come up and forcibly seized the said House from the militiamen accused him of concealing the whereabouts of the negro and the horse which House denied, but he was nevertheless severely whipped by the band.

It appears that there was at the time a sharp difference of opinion among residents of that section as to the guilt or innocense of House. Whereupon the following persons in the area signed a statement expressing the opinion that House was an innocett victim and that he knew absolutely nothing about the alleged disappearance of the negro and the horse.

My grandfather, RICHARD JORDAN TERRY, was born in Maury Co. Tenn. after hie parents had moved there from Warren Co., N.C. He was born in 1831 and his sister, immediately older than he was born in 1830 in N.C. His parents was DAVID TERRY, and his wife, NANCY BELCHER (JORDAN) TERRY, who were married in Warrenton, Warren County, N.C. on Nov. 12, 1807. Their marriage bond is on file in that county court house, and was granted 11/11/1807. We have never been able to prove David Terry's family, though we have much about NANCY B. JORDAN'S family. Hello,

I found your name and address in the Jan.-Feb. 1993 Genealogical Helper.

Was wondering if you have information on the Jordan name that might help me.

My great grandfather was William Henry Jordan born in 1844 or 1848. Married Louisa Hightower in 1870. They are both buried near Morgan Mill, Erath county, Texas.

I have been told William Henry was born in Alabama another says he was born in Fl. I have three different first names for his father, Joseph, Elijah and J. M. Jordan. His mother was Eveline or Mary Coleman.

Would like any information that might help me.

Thank you,
Shirley Joy

Dear Shirley:

Sorry for the dleay in answering your query re Jordans. We had the inside and outside of our home painted and I'm still going through boxes and putting things away!!

It does not appear that we are connected, in so far as the information goes that you sent. No birth places etc. Our name is pronounced 'Jourdan' even thoughiit is spelled Jordan. My husband's people are from Georgia and before that the Carolinas. I suspect North Carolina but nothing proven.

With your statement that your grt grdfather was born in the 1840's the 1850 census indexes should help you pick up your family. I'm concluding that you are new to research so forgive me if you have already tried this method.

The 1850 census is the first census where everyones name was listed in the record, so I theorize that the index for AL should list the Jordans/Jerdon/ Jourdon - look for the given names of Joseph, Elijah or James. M. -look them up on the actual census and see who is listed as children in the family and perhaps you'll find a little boy name William /Willie/WmlHenry about 6 or 8 years old- and then maybe this is your family!! An added clincher to be sure that you have the right family,(lots of Wm. Henry Jordans) is to know the names of any brothers or sisters of your Wm.Henry...then you'll know that you have the right family.

I don't know about San Antonio's genealogical sources, if the main library doesn't have the Federal Census of AL then a quick trip to Fort Worth, where the National Archives branch is located, will give you ALL the States' census from 1790 through 1920.

Good luck in your research.

Sincerely,

Reconstructing Henrico Co, VA records by Commissioners Court 28 Apr 1783

The will of Benjamin Jordan, was disproved - and Robert Jordan certified that on 10 Feb 1775 the will gave to wife Lydia his whole estate personal & real after paying just debts, with the 1/3 of land 'I now live on' during her natural life. Eldest son, Robert land, he now lives on in Hanover Co. known by the name of ~~Steele~~ 'Street' & his negroes.

Will of Benjamin Jordon - 1775 - Henrico Co. VA

"Second son Benjamin, 2/3 rds of the tract of land now lived on & remaining 1/3 at death of Mother. together with 3 negroes.

Third son, Thomas Pleasants Jordan, land adjoining the tract now lived on known by the name of 'Hamblets' 3 negroes & Lewis that he now has possession Grandson, Pleasant Robertson Jordan - a negro girl, 'my old negro woman, Hagar by past service - shall be liberated after the death of her mistress.

At a meeting of Commissioners Court to restore Henrico Co. records 5 Aug 1794 Thomas Jordan appeared & gave them to understand that his brother, Benjamin had by deed of gift given him 3 negroes, Mary Jordan, being a Quaker, opposed that this was so & the deed was ratified

NOTE: The Bible that Mother has was in a storm and got wet. The pages are falling out of both Augustus Franklin Jordan's Bible and Marion Augustus Jordan's Bible. I filled in with a little of the knowledge that I had on some names and hope to get the rest soon.

I have copied the Bibles as closely as possible, only adding what I do know. Marion and Henrietta were in our home until they died.
